Seven candles for Kwanzaa's seven principles.
Traditional Kwanzaa Celebration at La Peña.

Kwanzaa; a unique opportunity for the African American community to celebrate a common heritage. Thursday, December 26, 1997. 7pm. At La Peña in Berkeley. For more infor call 510-849-2568

Join us for a shared community celebration of Kwanzaa without the commercialism associated with the holiday season. Celebrating the occasion the International Black Writers & Artists and Richard Moore will present Hail Bebop #10 / Kwanzaa. Honoring Marvin Gaye. A showcase of Bay Area poets, musicians, and storytellers - plus an open mic for artists of all ages. Families are encouraged to attend.
Potluck - bring a dish to share.

La Peña Cultural Center's 25th Anniversary Celebration Projects

Throughout the year of our 25th Anniversary Celebration, an oral history project will gather information, stories, narratives and impressions about La Peña and the people who have come together here to perform, to celebrate diverse cultures and to transform the world. Perhaps you will take the time in the coming year and jot down your impressions and memories and send them to us.

Also, if you get a chance to drop by, we have 25 years of photographs of people and events -- most unidentified. Perhaps you can help us write captions for them. We look forward to hearing from you.

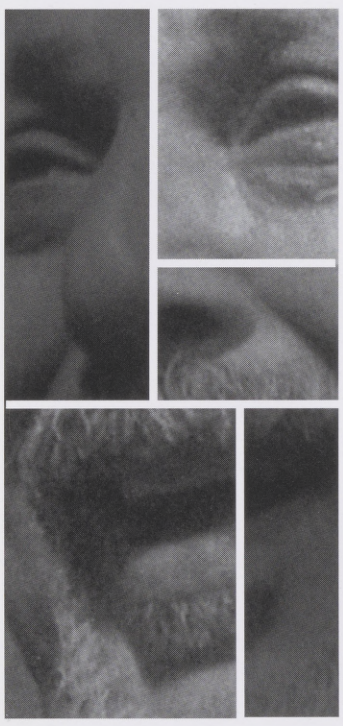
La Peña Presents

Bay Area Latin Jazz Legacy

hosted by John Santos

147 INKWORKS



La Peña's series coincides with the work of music critic, Chuy Varela and John Santos with the Smithsonian Institute in Washington DC that is currently showing a national exhibit on the History of Latin Jazz. La Peña decided to create a performance series about Bay Area Latin Jazz to deepen our community's understanding of Bay Area music history.

> "If you're a Latin jazz lover, this (will be) like visiting Mecca: if you're a novice to the music, this is a good place to start."
> Chuy Varela, Music Critic

La Peña thanks our funders: Alameda County Arts Commission, Association of Performing Arts Presenters, Berkeley Civic Arts Commission, California Arts Council, East Bay Community Foundation Gerbode Foundation, National Performance Network, James Irvine Foundation, Mervyns, National Endowment for the Arts, San Francisco Foundation, William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, Zellerbach Family Fund, and our many individual donors and members!

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS
California Arts Council
See's CANDIES

La Peña presents a six part program series delving into the History Of Bay Area Latin Jazz. "Bay Area Latin Jazz Legacy" will feature Bay Area Latin Jazz veterans as well as up and coming Jazz Latino artists. Each of the six evenings will feature one or two Latin Jazz groups both in performance and in conversation. Each program in the series will be hosted by Bay Area percussionist, band leader, historian, composer and teacher, John Santos. He, along with other invited panelists will speak in conversation with the featured artists in each session followed by a great evening of music!

This series is supported by National Endowment for the Arts, See's Candy and Zellerbach Family Fund. Co-sponsors are San Francisco Jazz Festival, Stanford Jazz Workshop, Rhythmic Concepts – Jazz Camp, KPFA 94.1 Radio, The Jazz School and Salsasf.com.

April 4

Tribute to West Coast Jazz

From cowboys to cool Jazz, the West has always marched to its own drummer. Though SF Latin Jazz history has not been documented as in other places, it has survived with a distinct identity. Guest of honor Johnny Coppola is a veteran of the early days of SF Jazz and played with pioneering big band leader, Stan Kenton, Tito Puente, and Machito among other luminaries. Tonight he joins Bay Area Latin Jazz standard bearers, John Santos and the Machete Ensemble. This will be Machete Ensembles first performance since nominated for the Latin Jazz Grammy Award! Guest moderator, Chuy Varela has championed Latin Jazz through his writing and radio hosting and programming for many years.

Panel: 7:00pm Performance: 8:30pm • $12adv. or before 7pm • $15door

April 18

Looking Forward

Mingus Amungus is the past, present, and future of Jazz with a distinct Afro-Latin presence in the writing as well as the interpretation. Special guest Maestro Pete Escovedo is a Bay Area icon who has directed several world class ensembles with a similar futuristic outlook since the 1960s.

Panel: 7:30pm Performance: 8:30pm • $12adv. or before 7:30pm • $15door

May 2

Tribute to Benny Velarde

Percussionist Benny Velarde is the elder statesman of SF Latin Jazz. He performed and recorded with the legendary Cal Tjader in the 1950s, and has led his own ensembles nonstop since 1961. Benny's guests, vibraphonist/flautist, Roger Glen and trumpeter, Joe Ellis, and Willie Colon are SF treasures who have collaborated with him countless times over the years.

Panel: 7:30pm Performance: 8:30pm • $12adv. or before 7:30pm • $15door

May 16

Afro-Latin Panorama

Multi-instrumentalist, John Calloway is a San Francisco veteran of innumerable ensembles and is one of the Bay Area's premier Latin Jazz composer/arrangers through his innovative and traditional work. He will perform with his all star band, Diaspora in a double bill with O-Maya. O-Maya brings the young fire, energy, and raw talent of the bustling San Francisco club scene where Jazz, Hip Hop, Funk, Soul, and Salsa intersect. Tonight's presentations will give a serious clue as to the Bay Area's storied creative diversity.

Panel: 7:30pm Performance: 8:30pm • $12adv. or before 7:30pm • $15door

June 13

Unsung Heroes

Though all Bay Area Jazz artists are unsung heroes, Mark Levine and Eddie Duran top the list. Eddie has brought the fat swing of his guitar to Bay Area audiences since the early 1950s, and Mark has delighted us with his masterful piano since the 1960s when he played with Mongo Santamaria, Cal Tjader and others. Their respective ensembles represent the tightness and deceptive effortlessness of some of the finest musicians who bring the highest level of communication to the stage.

Panel: 7:30pm Performance: 8:30pm • $12adv. or before 7:30pm • $15door

June 20

Bay Area World Jazz

Our series closes with distinct visions of the world from Cuban and Venezuelan perspectives with Columna B and the Snake Trio. Musicianship, composition and technique come together in a powerful demonstration of Bay Area contemporary international expression.

Panel: 7:30pm Performance: 8:30pm • $12adv. or before 7:30pm • $15door
